LIBER 10 PAGE 168

Stanley S. Cooper, a witness of lawful age being first duly sworn, deposes and says.

- L. State your mame, age and remidence.
- A. Stanley S. Cooper, aged 22 years and reside at Brunswick.
- 2. What relation, if any, are your to the parties to this suit?
- A. I am a grandson-of Mosa M. Cooper, Roy S. Cooper, who died before his mother, Rosa M. Cooper. I am a nephew of Levin B. Cooper, the without who just testified.
 - 5. Do you know the heirs at law of Rosa M. Cooper?
- A. She left surviving her, a son, Levin E. Cooper, whose wife's name Myrtle R. Cooper,

A daughter Hazel Kidwiler, whose husband's name of its

A grandson, Stanley S. Cooper, myself, a son of Roy S. Cooper, who died before the death of his mother, Resa M. Cooper.

A daughter, Eva Lynn, was left at my grandmother's death, but she died the first day of last January, leaving a surviving husband, Lewis L.Lynn, and the following children: (1)Catherine L. Powers who married Charles Powers an adult, (2) Luther Lynn, unmarried, and adult. (5) Stephen Lynn, an infant under the age of 21 years; (4) (5) Lee Lynn, an infant, and/Carrie Lynn, an infant.

- 4. Bonyouk know the real estate left by Roda M. Cooper?
- A. Zes sir, I see it often.
- 5. What in your opinion is a fair market value for the property?
- A. I thin $250.00 is about a fair price. The house needs repairing, to make it livable property.